ACHIEVE YOUR GOALS

WHY STUDY WITH BELL?

We continue to follow the vision of our founder, Frank Bell, who believed in the power of language to transform lives and the world. Our heritage means we have always had education at the heart of everything we do and in over 60 years, we have never compromised on that.

LEARNING THE BELL WAY

Each student's learning is guided by the six principles of The Bell Way, which have been developed by our academic team and an Emeritus Professor from the University of Cambridge.

The Bell Way is core to everything we do at Bell, enhancing your learning progress and ensuring your success.

THE BELL CONFIDENCE MEASURE

A Bell learning experience teaches language and develops life skills. Bell has worked with a Professor at the University of Cambridge to develop a way to measure confidence gained by students on our courses.

All students have their increase in confidence included in their end of course report.

SARKA

LEARNING AND TEACHING MANAGER, BELL LONDON

We focus on getting to know our students personally and tailoring the experience to their needs. The most rewarding part of my role is seeing students progress and improve in many ways. I'm passionate about reading and I always get excited when students are encouraged to come to the learning centre and borrow a book, so they can start learning outside of school.

OUR TEACHING EXPERTISE

Bell only employs the very best teachers. Bell experts give talks at industry-leading teaching events, with nine Bell speakers at IATEFL UK in 2016 and in 2017. Our Head of Teacher Development, Silvana Richardson, is at the forefront of English language teaching and well-known around the world. She leads a team which includes many published ELT authors and teacher trainers.

MARIA ITALY

My goal at Bell was to work on very specific business topics; to specialise in the financial and political sectors and to acquire advanced collocations and vocabulary. The teachers here have adjusted lessons to match my needs and this has allowed me to learn so much.

WE HELP YOU TO LEARN WHEREVER YOU ARE

From breakfast with your homestay family to lunch with friends and an evening exploring the city, we will encourage and support you as you immerse yourself in the English language.

Our free Language in Action programme will help you practise what you have learnt in class and your progress will be enhanced further by regular homework and self-study activities.

#mybellstory

MARYAM TEACHER

If a student is struggling in my class, I will give them extra activities such as reading and vocabulary exercises. I call them 'homework dinner' and I ask students do you want a reading pizza or perhaps a vocabulary salad – or whatever you want, everything is on the menu!

WE GIVE YOU REGULAR FEEDBACK TO MAKE YOU A BETTER LEARNER

Reviewing your work frequently gives you confidence in your success and helps you identify areas for development.

In addition to regular 1 to 1 tutorials with your teacher, you will learn how to assess your own work – and the work of your friends – giving you the skills to continue your learning outside the Bell classroom.

Bell teacher Emily Curran presented at the industry-leading teacher conference IATEFL 2017.

WE NEVER STOP LEARNING

At Bell, we believe in lifelong learning. Our most recent report from the Independent Schools Inspectorate praised our "culture of continuous improvement" which helps our teachers remain leaders in their field.

Bell teachers are conference speakers, researchers, webinar presenters and published authors. Many of them are also teacher trainers. All of us strive to be the best for our students.

LARS

SWITZERLAND

I came here to improve my English before studying International Management at university. My father recommended Bell as he came here about 20 years ago. He was right, it's really great! I started on an Effective English course and progressed to the CAE. I've really liked meeting people from different nationalities.

GUIDE TO CAMBRIDGE EXAMS

Cambridge English is part of the University of Cambridge and their exams are accepted by over 20,000 universities, employers and governments around the world. They offer exams for every level of learner so you can track your language progress:

EXAM	CEFR LEVEL
CAMBRIDGE ENGLISH: KEY (KET)	A2
CAMBRIDGE ENGLISH: PRELIMINARY (PET)	B1
CAMBRIDGE ENGLISH: FIRST (FCE)	B2
CAMBRIDGE ENGLISH: ADVANCED (CAE)	C1
CAMBRIDGE ENGLISH: PROFICIENCY (CPE)	C2

At Bell we prepare students for the First (FCE) and Advanced (CAE) exams, and can also arrange Key (KET), Preliminary (PET) and Proficiency (CPE) exams on request. All certificates are lifelong qualifications.

Exams are around 3-4 hours in total. There are four papers:

- Reading and Use of English
- Listening
- Speaking
- Writing.

You take the Reading, Writing, Use of English and Listening papers on the same day and will sit this at a local test centre in Cambridge. The Speaking paper is usually taken a few days before the paper-based exam.

ABDULLAH

SAUDI ARABIA

I have been on many trips with the Language in Action team including Canterbury, Ely and Bury St Edmunds. I've seen many new places and learnt a lot about British culture and history.

STUDY TIME

Strengthen your learning with self-study based around your weekly learning objectives to practise and complement what you have learnt in lessons.

LEARNING AND COMPUTER CENTRES

You can access a wide range of resources in our learning centre and computer rooms including:

SOFIA

BRAZIL

My teacher is amazing – always giving us homework and things to practise; there is no lack of material! The CAE (Cambridge English: Advanced) is a difficult test, so you need the discipline to study hard and practise as much as possible.

BELL TEACHERS' TOP STUDY TIPS

1 Play word games – a fun way to enjoy learning new vocabulary and revising the words you already know. Try some crossword puzzles, anagrams, word searches, and games like Scrabble and Boggle.

KEN BATEUP, BELL CAMBRIDGE

2 Use English language audio guides when you visit museums and tourist destinations. You can pause and repeat, skip parts you are not interested in, and you often have a visual image to make the information come to life. Sometimes there's written information so you can check understanding too!

VIVIEN GILLES, BELL LONDON

3 Listen to the radio to practise your listening skills at home. Make up your own questions to answer to help you focus on what you are hearing.

EMI SLATER, BELL LONDON

4 Give yourself daily language challenges such as "Over lunchtime, I am going to use the grammar I studied this morning at least 3 times."

ROMARIC MASSON, BELL CAMBRIDGE

5 Go to the theatre – this live experience is so much better for your English than the cinema. Try to get a ticket as near the front as possible so that you can see the actors' eyes. Choose a story-led play such as The Mousetrap or The Woman in Black. Read a synopsis before you go and ask your teacher for help on any challenging themes or vocabulary. Above all, enjoy!

[During the visit] I explained to HRH Prince Edward the history of Frank Bell's "secret university".

I'm really enjoying my studies at Bell Cambridge, everyone is very nice. I love Cambridge as it's a small and quiet city.

OUR BELL STORY

We continue to follow the vision of our founder Frank Bell, a University of Cambridge graduate, who believed in the power of language to change lives and transform the world.

Frank started a 'secret university' teaching languages during his time as a prisoner of war in World War II and became convinced that the route to international cooperation lay in learning.

He opened the first Bell language school in Cambridge in 1955.

Our heritage means we have always had education at the heart of everything we do and in over 60 years, we have never compromised on that.
