For an enrolled student, the refund due will be calculated using the last date of attendance (LDA) and be paid within 45 days from the Date of Determination (DOD). The DOD is the date (1) the student gives notice of withdrawal to the institution, (2) the institution administratively withdraws the student; or (3) the institution terminates the student for cause.

WITHDRAWAL / TERMINATION AFTER CLASS START:

TUITION REFUNDS & MODIFICATION TO PAYMENTS

Students have the option to pay in cash for the period of enrollment or agree to be financially obligated for the same period of enrollment by entering into a recurring payment agreement (to take advantage of long-term pricing). The Period of Financial Obligation (PFO) is the period for which the student is legally obligated to pay for the enrollment period and cannot exceed 12 months. Refunds or modifications to the recurring payment agreement may only be done as follows:

1. Tuition: Used weeks of tuition will be prorated according to the scaled price list and charged back to the student when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated. Waived application fees will not be charged back to the student.

2. Refund amounts will be based on a student's LDA. When determining weeks completed, a partial week will be calculated as a full week provided the student was present at least one day during that week.

3. First PFO: For students whose last day of attendance occurs at any point in the first four weeks of their initial PFO, TALK will retain the charges applicable to the first four weeks. For students, whose last date of attendance occurs after the first four weeks but before or at the mid-point of their PFO, TALK will retain a prorated amount of tuition. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the midpoint, TALK will retain all amounts paid.

4. Subsequent PFOs: For students who have completed the first PFO or extended their enrollment at the institution but whose last date of attendance occurs before or at the midpoint of any subsequent PFO, the institution may retain a prorated amount of tuition for that period. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the midpoint of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain all the tuition for that period.

WITHDRAWAL OR TERMINATION AFTER START OF ACCOMMODATIONS: REFUNDS/MODIFICATION TO PAYMENT PLANS

1. TALK acts strictly as an agent for the student and may contract in its own name to facilitate the booking process based upon the students' requirements as indicated in this Application Form. Student understands and accepts that TALK is entitled to the difference between what the provider charges and the price the student pays, as a facilitation fee.

2. A student must provide notification of withdrawal in writing to be eligible for a refund or payment plan modification

3. Accommodation prices are calculated on a weekly basis and partial weeks are calculated the same as whole weeks.

Homestay accommodations pricing is based on a start date of the Sunday prior to the course start date and ending on the Saturday after the course end date. Additional charges will apply where accommodations are required before the first Sunday or after the last Saturday.

4. Students must give 4-weeks' written notice to the School Director. For terminations before 50 of course completion, Student is required to pay for the period of accommodations, unless bound by the terms and conditions of a separate housing agreement.

EXTENSIONS Students who extend their studies are subject to the pricing, payment and refund policies in place at the time of their extension.

LESSON equals 50 minutes of teaching.

BOOKS AND MATERIALS are not included in pricing.

CLASS SCHEDULES are subject to change, and classes may be modified or cancelled at TALK's discretion.

GROUP SIZE In the event a group class has less than 4 students, TALK, with students' consent, may convert 4 group classes to 1 semi-private class (2 or 3 students) or 6 group classes to 1 private class. The maximum group class size is 30 students.

MINIMUM AGE For participants in English Courses is 16 and Business Courses for Professional Development is 18. Additional restrictions may apply for Accommodations.
