Heidelberg, once the capital of the Palatinate and the spiritual centre of Calvinism, nestles in the picturesque Neckar valley and is known for its particularly mild climate. Over the years, Heidelberg's beauty has attracted a number of poets, painters and scientists. In the early 19th century the city on the Neckar became the most important centre of German late romanticism, and is inextricably linked with the poets Arnim, Brentano, Goethe and Eichendorff.

The Ruprecht-Karls University of Heidelberg was founded in 1386 and is Germany's oldest university. In July 2019 its status as a university of excellence was confirmed once again in the national Excellence Initiative. The university has therefore retained its leading position among Germany's institutes of higher education. Alongside the two Munich universities, LMU and TU, Heidelberg University is traditionally recognised as one of the best three universities in Germany (Times Higher Education World, Shanghai Ranking, QS World University Ranking).

Many monuments reveal the Neckar city's diverse history. Overlooking the river Neckar some 70 metres below is the city's most famous landmark, the Elector's castle, standing on the slope of Königstuhl, on its eponymous mountain. Its ruins are one of the most impressive sights on any visit to Germany (in 2019, the castle was among Germany's most popular destinations for international holidaymakers). Visitors climbing up to the castle first pass through the gate into the famous 'Hortus Palatinus' garden, created at the beginning of the 17th century. From the castle garden, there is a breathtaking view of Heidelberg, including the Philosophers' Walk on the opposite bank of the Neckar. Fascinating buildings dating back to a variety of epochs surround the inner courtyard. Situated in the Elector's wine cellar is the world's largest barrel, which was once filled with wine. It has rarely failed to impress – except in the case of Perkeo, the barrel's gnomish guard. Once, when asked if he could drink the barrel dry, his answer was a nonchalant 'perché no' – why not? – which is how he came to earn his name.

The baroque townhouses and their ornamental facades and doorways are a striking feature of any walk round the Old Town. The heart of the Old Town is the market place, between the Evangelical Church of the Holy Spirit and the grand renaissance building 'Zum Ritter'. Pubs and restaurants line the old alleyways leading away from the church. Spanning the Neckar is the Old Bridge, one of the most beautiful stone bridges in Germany. Not far from University Square is the Jesuit Church. Built in the early 18th century and adorned with several figures of the Virgin Mary and saints, the church is the Old Town's symbol of Catholicism, which regained its foothold in Heidelberg following the upheaval of the Thirty Years War and the Palatinate War of Succession.

The wooded hills around Heidelberg cloak the city in a stunning green. There is also plenty to explore in the surrounding area, including the Neckar valley forts, the German wine route, the ancient cultivated landscape along the Upper Rhine and the mountains of the Odenwald and Black Forest.

Proximity to Frankfurt, Karlsruhe/Baden-Baden and Stuttgart airports means Heidelberg is easily accessible to its guests from all over the world.

Heidelberg is synonymous with tradition and romanticism, but is also a modern, world-class science and business location. Heidelberg is home to the tradition-steeped university, the Academy of Sciences, the German Cancer Research Centre (DKFZ), four Max Planck institutes, the European Laboratory for Molecular Biology (EMBL), the Centre for Asian and Transcultural Studies (CATS), the Print Media Academy of Heidelberg Druckmaschinen, the SAS Institute and several research centres belonging to international companies. Such a cluster of the sciences is unparalleled in Germany and forms the foundation for a dynamic, science-orientated economy that elevates Heidelberg – despite a population of just 160,000 – to its position as one of Germany's leading economic centres.

Heidelberg is also one of Germany's leading cultural centres, as demonstrated by its wealth of museums and theatres. Literature is ever-present in the city and since December 2014 Heidelberg has been a designated 'UNESCO City of Literature'. Together with the neighbouring cities in the Rhine-Neckar metropolitan area (which also includes Mannheim, Ludwigshafen, Speyer, Schwetzingen and Worms), Heidelberg offers an array of nationally significant cultural events. See also the events calendar for the Rhine-Neckar metropolitan region on page 8.

International language school

The F+U language school is situated in the historic centre of the university city, just a few metres from the Neckar. The school building offers fantastic views of the Old Town, the castle and the Neckar valley.

Today, the F+U Academy of Languages is one of the largest language schools in Germany. Every year, over 10,000 language learners and exam candidates participate in the language courses and examinations, and learners from over 100 countries take part in the German courses. Thanks to its internationality, the school gives learners a unique opportunity to meet other people and find out more about their language and culture, and to practise their new language skills – between classes or during a break in the atrium, for instance, or when taking part in the cultural and sporting activities we offer several times a week.

With 50 multimedia-equipped classrooms (up to 65 in summer), three Internet rooms with 50 PCs, free Internet access and Wi-Fi and a central location, the F+U Academy of Languages offers everything you need for an exceptional learning experience in Heidelberg.

Several halls of residence with around 350 rooms, a boarding school, apartments, a school-owned hotel and a number of host families offer year-round accommodation to learners from all over the world.

Specialising in German as a foreign language, the F+U Academy of Languages is one of the world leaders in the provision of German courses, whether in the form of intensive lessons in the mornings and afternoons, extra-occupational evening courses or individual training. We offer online training to give learners unable to join classes at the school the opportunity to improve their language skills.

As an international test centre, the Academy of Languages stands for exceptional quality in language teaching. Alongside the best-known assessments such as TOEFL®, IELTS (International English Language Testing System) and TestDaF (Test Deutsch als Fremdsprache), the language school offers the following examinations: telc (The European Language Certificates, including C1 Hochschule, Zertifikat Deutsch, Zertifikat Deutsch für den Beruf), TOEIC®, LCCI (London Chamber of Commerce and Industry) exams, ECDL (the European Computer Driving Licence), TestAS (aptitude assessment for international university applicants), WiDaF (Test Deutsch in der Wirtschaft) and OnSet (online placement test for German and English).

The intensive and evening courses are offered throughout the year. Popular with international university applicants and learners with an interest in language and culture, the courses are also attended by employees of international companies and research institutes such as SAP, Lufthansa, Heidelberger Druckmaschinen, HeidelbergCement, Siemens, Daimler, NEC, Heipha, Brunel, BASF, EMBL, HITS, the DKFZ, Heidelberg University and many more businesses and scientific institutes. International sports stars from the region's well-known sports clubs, including 1899 Hoffenheim, Rhein-Neckar-Löwen, USC Heidelberg and SV Sandhausen, participate in the Academy's German courses.

In the F+U Academy of Languages online training programme people from all over the world learn German, English and other languages and prepare for language exams. Experienced and highly qualified tutors teach learners in the virtual classroom. F+U Academy of Languages tailors the course times and content to the needs of the learner, whether in individual training or in groups.

The state-recognised Vocational College for Foreign Languages is an outstanding feature of the Language Academy. The college offers full-time programmes leading to the following qualifications: Fremdsprachenkorrespondent*in (Foreign Language Correspondence Clerk), Europasekretär*in (European Secretary), Welthandelskorrespondent*in (Multilingual Correspondence Clerk) and Übersetzer*in (Translator). F+U is the only education provider in southern Germany to offer state-recognised vocational language training for Japanese. Recognised status has also been awarded for German as a foreign language, Chinese, English, French, Spanish and Russian.

The F+U Academy of Languages offers internship programmes within the Erasmus+ framework. This EU programme gives young people the chance to participate in a language course in Heidelberg, and to then complete a commercial internship.

Group lessons

Our groups are small and well coordinated. The hybrid lessons are interactive and dynamic. Participants have the choice of following the course in the classroom or online from the convenience of their home desk. To participate in the lesson, you require a stable broadband Internet connection and a computer, laptop or tablet as well as a camera and headset. Participation with a mobile phone is possible, but due to the teaching methods we recommend that you use a mobile phone to join the course only as a last resort.

Individual lessons

Does your child find it difficult to concentrate in a class? Or is there a difficult class test or final examination coming up? If so, our individual training is the right choice. The children and young people work individually on their weaknesses and develop strategies to tackle complex problems in a solution-oriented way. Our one-to-one training is of course available online and in class.

Learn languages just as you like: in-class, hybrid or online training

Language teaching in the 21st century is characterised by flexibility and digitalisation. The F+U Academy of Languages offers you forward-looking language learning in our innovative hybrid lessons.

We redefine the opportunities of borderless learning. The hybrid lesson is the link between in-class and online training; online and in-class learners participate together in the same course.

Hybrid lessons ensure there is always lively interaction among the whole group. Highly qualified German teachers use the latest technology such as an interactive board, surround sound and new media, stably transmitted via fibreglass cables.

Learners have the opportunity to switch between in-class and online training at any time - flexibly according to their needs.

Technical requirements

To join our online lessons, you require a stable broadband Internet connection and a computer, laptop or tablet as well as a camera and headset. Participation with a mobile phone is possible, but due to the teaching methods we recommend that you use a mobile phone to join the course only as a last resort.

Starting in winter semester 2021/22, F+U will offer special 8-semester dual bachelor's programmes for international students at the hwtk | University of Applied Sciences, the iba | International University of Cooperative Education and the isba | International University of Cooperative Education.

In the dual study programme, based on a 40-hour working week, students spend around 20 teaching hours per week in theory classes (contact time and self study) and also receive practical training for 16-20 hours per week in one of our partner companies.

Prerequisite for the programme is completion of German language level A2 and proof of a university entrance qualification equivalent to a German Abitur (see option 1). Applicants with an international university entrance qualification not recognised as equivalent to a German Abitur can, as an alternative to attending a Studienkolleg (preparatory college), complete a preparatory course at F+U and thus acquire an alternative higher education entrance qualification (see option 2).

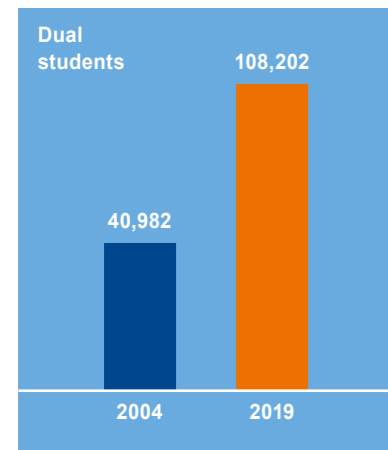

Possible subjects*: Business Administration with 13 specialisations (e.g. hotel and tourism management, catering management etc.); Informatics & Management; Engineering & Management, Social Pedagogy & Management; Physician's Assistant (in development).

Possible course locations*: Heidelberg, Berlin, Hamburg, Munich, Cologne, Darmstadt, Freiburg and more

Benefits of dual study at F+U

- You gain valuable work experience during your studies and have excellent career prospects after graduation.
- You only pay the costs of language training. In general, the practice companies cover the tuition fees from language level B2.
- While working for your individual practice company, you will receive a monthly allowance to cover your living expenses (depending on the sector).
- Prepare for your studies without losing time: Applicants without a university entrance qualification equivalent to the Abitur do not have to attend a Studienkolleg preparatory college.
- Student status from completion of A2 level: students can take advantage of several concessions.
- A provisional offer of university admission can be made for applicants requiring a visa.
- Entry to Germany is possible for applicants (including language beginners) who require a visa, with university admission and language course confirmation from F+U.

Halls of residence have a 'student' character

Accommodation rates for halls of residence and apartments are calculated to take into account both location (distance to school, attractiveness of the district) and the furnishings/facilities of the accommodation. However, please bear in mind that all our halls of residence and apartments have a 'student' character, including those in higher categories.

Internet, PC use, fitness room

- Most halls of residence and the apartments are equipped with Internet access. We provide Internet access free of charge. Please note that it is not a high-speed Internet connection. Now and then demand for accommodation exceeds our supply of 350 rooms, in which case we rent additional rooms and apartments. Information on their Internet facilities is available on request. Compliance with German Internet law is required at all times. There may be temporary disruption to Internet provision.
- You can also use the computers in our school, with free Internet access (50 computers in three IT rooms); Wi-Fi is also available from 07:30 to 20:00 Mondays to Fridays and on Saturdays from 10:00 to 16:00.
- If you lock yourself out of your room we can provide a spare key on payment of a deposit. Please note that this service is only available during the following office hours: Monday to Friday: 08:30 to 19:00; Saturday: 10:30 to 15:30. Outside these times you will need to call a professional locksmith at your own cost (from € 70, depending on the service provider).
- A laundry, a lounge and a small fitness room are available for residents of the F+U Campus halls of residence.

Cleaning the room and communal areas

Please note that for the entire duration of your stay you are responsible for cleaning your room. When you vacate the room, the accommodation must be clean and tidy. The occupant must remove furnishings that do not belong to the room and/or bulky rubbish before moving out. Kitchens and bathrooms are to be left clean. Communal areas are cleaned up to twice a week by F+U.

Laundry facilities and cooking utensils

- Halls of residence/apartments: Washing machines and tumble dryers are provided.
- Bed linen and towels: Bed linen is provided on arrival only; please bring your own towels.
- Cooking utensils, cutlery and crockery can be hired, subject to availability, for a deposit of € 40 plus a service charge of € 25 (the deposit is refunded upon the return of complete, clean sets).

Rental contract extension, accommodation transfer, cancellation, booking changes (halls of residence, apartments, host families)

Applications to extend the rental period must be made four weeks in advance of the contract's expiry.

An extension of the rental contract for the same room cannot be guaranteed. If, despite compliance with the four-week notice period, the current room or booked category has already been reallocated, we guarantee the availability of a room in an alternative hall of residence or in another category. In this instance, the fee for changing accommodation will be waived.

Extension requests received less than 14 days before contract expiry are subject to a processing fee of € 50.

Accommodation transfer (at own request): € 60

Termination of the rental contract: If the contract parties conclude a rental contract for a fixed term, any earlier ordinary termination of the rental contract is generally excluded (§ 542 II BGB – German Civil Code). However, as a gesture of goodwill we permit the termination of the rental contract subject to the following conditions of termination:

- a. By Tuesday, 15:30 after moving in: Cost: one week's rent.
- b. After this time, termination of the contract is only possible with six full rental weeks' notice (Sunday to Saturday), plus a € 100 termination fee.
- c. The administration fee is non-refundable.
- d. The weekly rental price will be adjusted after notice of the shortened rental period.

If termination of the contract is confirmed by F+U, rent prepaid for the period after the amended contract expiry will be refunded, minus the fees listed in points a, b and c above. Notice of the termination must be submitted in writing during accommodation office opening hours (room 10, Monday to Friday, 12:15-15:30). Changes to bookings for accommodation with host families or in halls of residence are possible subject to availability and a notice period of two weeks.

Halls of residence

Administration fee: € 80; deposit: € 200.

Double room bookings are only available for learners arriving together. Discount for groups of 10 or more people: 5% off the listed rent price.

All halls of residence have a kitchen.

The rental contract can be terminated with a notice period of six weeks plus a € 100 termination fee (see page 41).

Booking a residence category: First, please book your preferred residence category only. Approximately two weeks before your arrival – at the latest by Monday before your arrival – you will be informed of the name of your hall of residence.

Guaranteeing a specific hall of residence: For a one-off charge of € 295 we guarantee allocation of your preferred hall of residence, subject to room availability at the time of booking.

Postponed arrival: If your arrival is postponed, e.g. due to a delay in issuing a visa, and if the accommodation is booked to capacity, the originally booked room/residence category can no longer be guaranteed. In this case we reserve the right to offer accommodation in another hall of residence and/or residence category. The price difference resulting from a lower category, and the guarantee fee (where applicable) will be fully refunded. There is no extra charge if an upgrade is necessary! The only possible exception to this rule is if the rent for the booked room is paid from the original moving in date. Termination of the accommodation contract with full refund of the rent already paid is also possible, provided the contract is terminated within 24 hours of moving.
