About International House

International House (IH) is one of the largest groups of language schools, with over 150 schools in more than 50 countries worldwide.

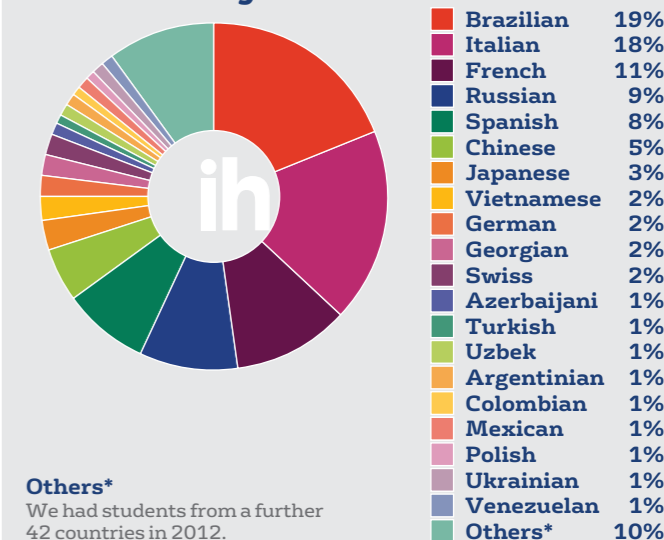

The International House World Organization (IHWO) is a worldwide network of language schools that is committed to implementing high standards of quality and innovation in education and training.

At IH New York and IH Boston we pride ourselves first and foremost on being built on a foundation of excellence in language teaching and therefore providing you - our students - with the best language education you can get in the USA.

In addition to having the best-qualified and most professional language teachers around, we are also proud of our state-of-the-art schools in the most fashionable, touristic and convenient neighborhoods.

Nationality mix

Possibly the most recognizable and most frequently filmed city in the world, New York City has put itself on the map as the young, dynamic, trend-setting capital of the world.

New York

Located in the heart of Manhattan in the Chelsea neighborhood, our center is the perfect location to study English.

Situated on 26th Street between 7th and 8th Avenue, you can reach us in a short walk from the A,C,E,1,2,3,F,M,N,Q and R trains or from commuter trains to Penn Station.

Our brand-new school was built in summer 2012 to offer a comfortable, modern and convenient learning environment. We have 14 comfortable, spacious classrooms, with lots of natural light.

We have a language lounge for relaxation and self-study, with a room full of beautiful new Mac computers and other resources for you to use to improve your English further outside the classroom. We have a boardroom for our Executive English class and we have 3 rooms dedicated to private classes, as well as free wi-fi throughout the school.

Our multilingual enrollment team are always on hand to help you with questions about your studies, your accommodation and our fantastic social program, and also to help you with questions you have about orienting yourself around our great city.

Whatever your interests, New York has it all! Whether it's great museums like the Met and the MoMA, legendary sports teams such as the Yankees and the Knicks, world-famous shops including Macy's, Tiffany's and Bloomingdales, awe-inspiring architecture like the Chrysler Building, the Empire State Building and the Brooklyn Bridge or the bright lights of Broadway and Times Square, it's all here waiting for you. And after class, New York City has some of the best and most varied cuisine in the world. With 50 restaurants boasting Michelin stars, you'll definitely find New York to your taste!

“An incredible experience! Amazing school, brilliant teachers, awesome classmates and of course what a great city! I can't wait to come here again!”

🇮🇹 Naomie, Italy, April 2012

“It's a very convenient location, easy to commute from the other parts of the city, very close to the subway station. I like the area, because there are a lot of restaurants and shops.”

🇫🇷 Dina, France, September 2012

Boston, the center of the American Revolution, is the most historic large city in the US, yet at the same time is a modern city, offering attractions to suit every taste and interest.

Boston

When you've finished studying for the day, then head off and see all the sights that the city has to offer - from whale watching to the Museum of Fine Arts, from the famous Freedom Trail to the colonial architecture of Cobble Hill and the boutiques of Newbury Street, there's something in Beantown for everyone.

In a beautifully restored "brick and beam" building from the 19 century, International House Boston is based in Faneuil Hall Marketplace, South Market, right next door to the famous "Cradle of Liberty" of Faneuil Hall. The area is a bustling commercial and business hub and is one of the most visited tourist attractions in the U.S., minutes away from public transport and right in the center of downtown Boston.

The classrooms are fully equipped with multimedia technology, designed to provide a comfortable learning environment. Students also have access to free wi-fi throughout the building, computers in the common area, a library and kitchenette.

IH Boston specializes in small group TOEFL, Executive English and Private lessons.

“ I took TOEFL lessons for one month and at the end of the course I had the TOEFL exam. I had the best experience of my life. Teachers are professional and knowledgeable and they really help you. I learned a lot!!! Thank you International House. ”

English for Exams

Our schools in New York and Boston specialize in offering preparation courses for all the leading English language exams, including the TOEFL, FCE and CAE. We are an examination center for the Cambridge exams and for the TOEIC and whatever test you need to take, we can help you to get the score you want.

General English

Intensive 20

Enroll in this intensive program of 20 lessons a week and you'll be sure to improve your level of English and develop the confidence to use it with ease! Our dynamic curriculum will have you speaking, reading, writing and listening at a higher level while also having fun. We offer 5 levels of class, from elementary (A1) to advanced (C1). Class schedule is 9-12.40. Start any week, only available in New York.

One-to-One

Get the personal attention of a skilled teacher to help you work specifically on the areas you need to improve with our one-to-one private lessons. Tailor-made to fit your needs, our popular one-to-one programs help you focus on any area of your choice.

Intensive 20 + One-to-One Packages

Get the best of both worlds with our Silver, Gold and Platinum Packages. Add 5, 10 or 20 private one-to-one lessons per week to your group classes to help you rapidly develop skills you can use in real-life situations.

Skype and Email Follow-up Courses

Want to get started before you arrive or carry on studying after you've finished your course? Our package of Skype or Email lessons allow you to work with your favorite teachers from the comfort of your own home.

You can start any Monday. Each level takes 10 weeks to complete, and you can move up to the next class by passing the level-up test.

Executive English

Executive 20

Our Executive 20 course has 2 strands. You'll spend half of your time studying the language of common business themes such as finance, marketing or law and you'll spend the other half developing your business communication skills in meetings, presentations, negotiations and so on.

Executive Silver, Gold and Platinum Courses

Get individualized attention with our private One-to-One lessons so you can work on your specific language and professional goals. Your certified One-to-One teacher works with you to design a program to fit your language learning needs.

In-Company Classes

Improve your English language skills in small, closed groups either at our fully-equipped center or on location at your company office. We customize our programs to meet the needs of your specific professional group.

Business Lunch New for 2013!

Maximize the efficiency of your schedule and practice your English over a meal in an authentic social situation. Includes a 75-minute lunch with a teacher at a local restaurant.

“I would highly recommend Executive English classes with IH New York for everyone, who wants to learn how to use English at work and how to communicate with colleagues from other countries. Classes were very interesting because we used a lot of extra materials besides the course book, for example newspapers and magazines.”

■ Suzanne, France, January 2012

Home to Wall Street and headquarters to more Fortune 500 and Fortune Global companies than any other city on the planet, New York is the world's business capital. So what better place to develop your business communication skills?

The International House New York Executive Center teaches business professionals from all over the world to communicate more effectively in English, helping them achieve greater success in their jobs.

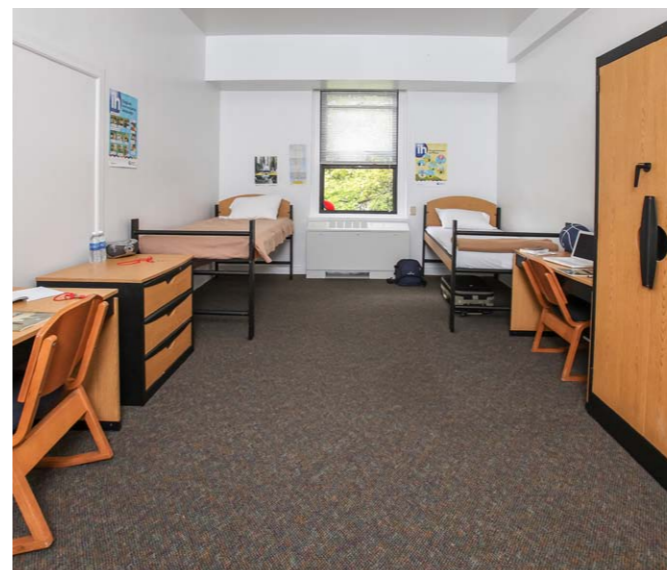

For our business clients, the key to effective communication means improving their skills in negotiating, making presentations, entertaining foreign clients, writing formal proposals, and speaking confidently with colleagues in a variety of contexts.

We tailor courses to individual requirements, ensuring that the time you spend in the Executive Center is especially profitable.

If you are looking to get ahead professionally, you can count on International House New York to get you there!

“Business English classes at IH New York were very useful for me because the teachers thought about what I need in my job. The classes were focused on something that was really important for our daily tasks and career promotion in the future.”

■ Gabriel, Argentina, July 2012

Accommodation

Residence

Our student residences are well-located options with basic budget accommodation. The YMCAs offer singles or doubles with shared bathrooms and access to the gym. If you are staying for a month or more, then some of the longer-term residences offer en-suite studio-style accommodation.

Home-stay

If you are looking to have a more authentic living experience in New York, you may want to stay in an English-speaking household. We offer bed-and-breakfast or half-board, which includes breakfast and dinner, and we have downtown options or budget alternatives further from the city center.

Hostels

If you're on a tighter budget, we have some great hostel options. Shared bedrooms and bathrooms, fantastic facilities, games rooms, kitchens and a really good social scene.

Hotels

If you are willing to pay more and are interested in staying in a full-service hotel, there are numerous luxury accommodation options in the center of Boston and New York, within walking distance of the IH schools.

For more information or to make a reservation, email info@ihnewyork.com

“The accommodation was clean, safe and in a great area. There was a great atmosphere there between the other students as well.”

■ Se-eun, Korean, March 2012

English for Teenagers

2-6 week summer programs for 12-18 year-olds in Boston and New York as well as winter camps in Manhattan. Our camps include accommodation, 3 meals a day, 15 hours of English language classes a week, daily excursions in and around the city and a variety of fun activities.

7 reasons why you should choose IH for your junior courses in New York and Boston:

- * 2 amazing cities - Boston Classic College Campus and New York Classic College Campus
- * More excursions than any other summer or winter camp - with either 4 full-day trips per week or 5 half days and 2 full days
- * Unbeatable nationality mix - we had over 30 nationalities on our camps in 2012
- * You can see the best of both amazing cities with our New York / Boston combination courses (with free transfer between cities)
- * Safe campuses with dedicated security teams
- * Excellent academic programs - we write our own books specifically for teenagers studying in our cities
- * Optional extras including skiing in the winter and 6 Flags, Niagara Falls or Washington DC in the summer

“I loved this course and learned so much! My lessons were fun because my teachers were fun!”

 Anna, Russia, August 2012

Why Choose IH New York for Your Child?

Safety

We promise that the safety and security of our students is our first concern.
