“ I’m a law student in Spain and after I finish university I want to do a master’s degree. If I have a really good level of English a lot of doors will open to me – that’s one of the reasons I came here. I think the best way to learn a language properly is to come to the country.

I think I’m improving a lot and I’m understanding way more how the CAE exam works. There are six of us in my class, which is great. It’s perfect. You get a lot of attention, so I’m really happy with that. We all work together – it’s good that we are all preparing for the same thing. ”

Kings New York is based at Concordia College in the safe, affluent village of Bronxville

Halloween festivities are one of October's most popular activities in our US centers

“ I like the pace of life in New York – it is really fast paced and there is something always going on there. Concordia is very close to New York City, and Bronxville is small. The college's classes are not too big. This is good for me as an international student because I can interact more with the teachers. ”

Your personalised progress plan

Setting
your level

Placement test on your first day, using our system of 8 fluency bands (see below).

2

Planning
your progress

We'll help you plan how long you need to study to reach the level you're aiming for – typically, students progress one Kings level every 8 - 12 weeks.

3

Checking
your progress

You'll have a weekly test as well as formal progress tests every 6 weeks. We'll give you assignments and projects to help you keep learning outside of class. There will be close interaction with your teachers at all times.

Your own progress will depend on the length and intensity of your course, the level at which you are currently studying, as well as your own personal ability and motivation.

As part of your personalised learning plan, you have the option to take one-to-one lessons. These can include work on vocabulary, idioms or pronunciation and can be ideal before exams, job interviews or university interviews. (Please note, one-to-one lessons may not be available during high season)

Core English development

All our courses are based on development of core English skills. This is the foundation on which you can build your own unique outcome. Whichever course you take, you will develop fluency and understanding across the four main areas of English:

Once you've mastered these skills, you can use them to develop specialist knowledge for professional success, exam success or university success.

We offer two ways to achieve your own outcome.

1. Custom-built

Book a "core" Intensive Course or Diploma of English and then add your choice of Special Interest Groups (SIGs) to customise your outcome. These are individual subject modules which are divided into the four main outcome pathways. Once your course starts you can decide your SIGs from the selection available at your chosen location. See pages 64 - 65

2. Ready-made

Book a specialist "ready-made" course which has been pre-designed to focus on your intended outcome – whether professional, exam, or university success. See pages 68 - 87

Maximise your fluency and experience: Study long-term

As well as the extra benefits you get by booking longer, you will also gain much more with a long-term Intensive Course or the Diploma of English.

1. Greater fluency in English:

You'll develop much broader and deeper skills in all the main areas of the language – speaking, listening, reading, and writing.

2. More cost-effective:

The longer you study, the cheaper your weekly course price becomes.

3. Complete cultural immersion:

You'll have the time to feel completely at home in the UK or USA, getting an inside view of the language and culture.

4. Follow special interest subjects:

You'll be able to extend your learning with a choice of Specialist Interest Groups (see pages 64 - 65).

5. Study in more than one location:

You could study at more than one Kings location, giving you the chance to live in two different cities.

“I needed an English level to apply to my future school, so I chose to take the TOEFL. I needed to reach at least 80 points and I got 94! I found that Louis, the teacher who’s teaching the TOEFL class in LA, was so helpful. He’s always trying to push his students to do the maximum and he’s really open minded. I always tried to apply his advice and pay attention to his comments.”

To me, Kings LA is a very serious school, very professional. All the staff are so kind, and they are always trying to make our experience even better. That’s why I would definitely recommend this school, especially for the TOEFL class.”

“ I’m now in level 6, but when I started I was in level 2! I’m really happy with my progress. I want to apply for a Master’s degree in the UK – I have got a bachelor’s degree in Mass Communication from Thailand. I think it’s better to get a good job in Thailand if you graduate from an English-speaking country. I’m happy here at Kings. The best thing about being here is the teachers, they are so kind. When I came here I didn’t understand anything, but I could always ask and they would explain. ”
